

DAYSKIPPER 1

Across

- 5 Knot used to make a strong loop. (7)
- 7 The force that causes the tides. (7)
- 10 Measurements East or West of Greenwich. (9)
- 11 A depth on a chart but underlined. (6)
- 12 High water height minus low water height. (5)
- 14 Satellite navigation. (3)
- 15 One nautical mile in Latitude terms. (6)
- 17 A warning mark with 2 balls on it. (8,6)
- 18 Another power driven vessel on your starboard bow, what should you do. (4,3)
- 19 Clearance under a bridge is measured from this level. (3)
- 20 The compass error caused by the ship's magnetic field. (9)

- 22 Mooring lines that stop back and forward movement. (7)
- 24 A long tug with a long tow has how many masthead lights? (4)
- 28 You see a continuous flashing white light ahead. You are heading west. Which way is safety? (5)
- 30 Fog signal for a dredger or sailing yacht. (4,5,5)
- 32 What ship shows all round green over white? (7)
- 33 This side of triangle has 2 arrows. (6,5)
- 35 Angular difference between True and Magnetic. (9)
- 36 Good knot for fenders. (5,5)

- 37 An anchor that stows flat and has large area flukes. (8)
- 38 Opposite tacks, who gives way? (4,4)

Down

- 1 Scale used for measuring distance. (8)
- 2 Sidelights, stern light and a masthead light. (5,6,6)
- 3 Draught 2, Height of tide 4, charted depth 3. Clearance? (4)
- 4 Sound signal at anchor in fog. (4)
- 6 Sailing on Starboard tack with a yacht approaching you on Port tack. What do

- you do. (5,2)
- 8 Red and green lights shown by a small boat under way. (10)
- 9 Mark showing two cones with points together. (4,8)
- 13 Light characteristic for a North cardinal. (10)
- 14 Colour of light for a British Starboard hand mark. (5)
- 16 Two objects in line used to judge position. (7)
- 21 Number in metres obtained from tidal curve. (6,2,4)
- 23 Colour of British channel mark that has a flat top. (3)

- 25 Day signal for a vessel at anchor. (6,4)
- 26 When the range for the day reaches a peak. (6,4)
- 27 Course and distance through the water. (5,5)
- 29 Power vessels head on, which way should they turn? (9)
- 31 Three sectors, one bulb on top of mast. (9)
- 34 Light you see on a vessel you are overtaking. (5)